

Stick the fork in October! Will we be thankful for November?

Brett Pattison from Iron Gate Global Advisors reviews what transpired in the month of October in the global markets. He then discusses what may happen in the month of November based on historical market cycles.