

When it's too good to be true..

After a rough start to the year, the market has been skyrocketing higher and higher. Whenever this type of market movement occurs, something else also occurs.

- People start day trading for a living
- People start bragging about unbelievable returns
- Firms start marketing promises that are unrealistic and often dangerous

In this episode of our podcast, we discuss the notion that if it's too good to be true, it often is.

Here's to wise investing,
